

Claims: The following is a listing of all claims in the application with their status and text of all active claims.
1-4 (CANCELED)

5.(New) I claim: An online billing system, comprising: a valued customer date for its billing numbers, employed on internet web sites the billing system will inform a merchant of the date the billing system was created, such as, if the billing systems numbers read 1982, the merchant will know the systems database was issued and created in the year of said 1982, this date will help the merchant determine if this account is the result of identity theft.

6.(New) I Claim: An online billing system, comprising: an account expiration date for its billing numbers, employing numbers to create an internet billing expiration date for internet web sites, the system bills the date an account will expire, such as, if the systems numbers read 02/09 a merchant will know the billing numbers on the account will expire february 2009.

7.(New)A method for detecting credit card fraud online employing actual numbers and letters of a consumer's address for billing numbers, and fraud detection system, comprising:

- (a) verifying ownership of said address billing numbers by matching said address billing numbers to numbers of the consumer's shipping address if one said address billing number does not match the consumer's shipping address the account will not be billed,
- (b) said address billing letters will translate into numbers the letter e will translate into the number 5 for the fifth letter of the alphabet, a means for wiring money employing said address billing numbers and said address billing letters of the consumer's shipping address as a fraud detection system, whereby a 100 present fraud proof address billing direct shipper credit card fraud detection system.

8.(New)A method for detecting credit card fraud online employing actual numbers of a consumer's telephone number for billing numbers providing a caller id system to detect fraud, comprising:

verifying ownership of said telephone billing numbers by matching said telephone billing numbers to providing said caller id system if one said telephone billing number is different from providing said caller id system the account will not be billed, a means for wiring money with actual numbers of the consumer's telephone number providing said caller id system verification, whereby a 100 present fraud proof telephone number worldwide shipper online fraud detection system.